AUTHORIZATION

The answers provided on this application are representations and not warranties of the person signing below. The answers given are true and complete. It is understood that Minnesota Life Insurance Company (the Company), St. Paul, Minnesota 55101-2098 shall incur no liability because of this application unless and until it is approved by the Company and the first premium is paid while my health and other conditions affecting my insurability are as described in this application. I understand that false or incorrect answers to the above questions may lead to rescission of coverage. If coverage is rescinded, an otherwise valid claim will be denied. To determine my insurability or for claim purposes, I authorize any medical practitioner, institution, or person(s), insurance company or the Medical Information Bureau (MIB) to give any medical or nonmedical information about me excluding the results of any newly administered or previous test for the HIV antibody, but including alcohol or drug abuse, to the Company and its reinsurers. I authorize all said sources, except MIB, to give such information to any agency employed by the Company to collect and transmit such information. I do not authorize my attending physician, any person, insurer, reinsurer, contractually retained medical personnel, laboratories, MIB, or other national data bank, insurance affiliate, or insurance support organizations that are obligated, to release information or results of any newly administered or previous test for the HIV antibody. I understand in determining eligibility for insurance or benefits, this information may be made available to underwriting, claims, medical and support staff of the Company. This authorization is valid for 24 months. A photocopy shall be as valid as the original. I've read this and the Consumer Privacy Notice above, and I understand that I can have copies.

CONSUMER PRIVACY NOTICE

To underwrite your insurance request, the Company may ask for additional personal information, such as an insurance medical exam; lab tests; medical records from your insurance company, physician or hospital; a report from the Medical Information Bureau (MIB), a non-profit organization of life insurance companies that exchanges information among its members. Information about your insurability is confidential. Without your express authorization, the Company or its reinsurers may send your information to government agencies that regulate insurance; or, without identifying you, to insurance organizations for statistical studies; or may make a brief report of health information to the MIB. If you apply to a MIB member company for life or health insurance, or submit a benefits claim for benefits to a member company, the MIB, upon request, will supply the member company with the information in its file. You or your authorized representative have the right to: receive by mail or to copy your personal information in the Company or MIB files, including the source and who received copies within the past two years; to correct or amend personal information in these files; to know specific reasons why coverage was not issued as applied for; and to revoke your authorization at any time. At your written request, within 30 days the Company will explain in writing how to learn what is in your file, its source, how to correct or amend it or how to learn why coverage was not issued as applied for. You can send a written statement as to why you disagree. If we correct or amend the information, we will notify you and anyone who may have received the information. If we do not agree with your statement, we will notify you and keep your statement in your file.
